- Congratulations on completing the basic course!
- Already we have covered how to begin with drawings on paper, charcoal, pencil, brushes paint, and more.
- We have moved from black and white to color, and discussed how you can attain an infinite range of colors using only primary colors.
- Soon we will talk about actually planning what you want to express on canvas.
- Drawing is fundamental. Never stop drawing, even if you feel you're not great at it yet. We will train you on developing the 'eye of the artist.'
